Dear BVCS parents: BVCS is a non-profit organization supported by a group of dedicated and motivated teachers, and parent volunteers like you. One of BVCS' objectives is to provide an excellent environment for students to learn Mandarin Chinese Language and to explore Chinese Culture. The school activities and events are designed toward the goal that the students can embrace and enrich their Chinese culture experiences outside their regular classroom. These school functions can only be completed successfully with your involvement and participation.

We need you! Please check the activities or functions where you would like to best serve the students.
